Our Vision & Mission

DR. V. K. AGGARWAL

With a vision to give back to society, Dr. V.K. Aggarwal founded this academy to nurture the dreams of aspiring filmmakers, actors, writers, and technicians.

He firmly believes in bridging the gap between institutional knowledge and industry-ready professionals in the media field. As an educationist, he envisions nurturing creative dreams.

ER. ADITYA AGGARWAL

With robust infrastructure, state-of-the-art technology and a vision to make a mark in the industry, our mission is twofold: to provide well-paying opportunities for creatives and professionals while educating and upskilling the youth of the country. By empowering them with world-class training, we aspire to help them shine on the global stage.

RAHUL KANHWAT

In a world of cinema, I want to cultivate a vibrant community of artists and professionals who redefine the boundaries of storytelling. I believe in nurturing individuals who can make impactful contributions to the global cinematic stage through their creativity and dedication.

ANURAG SHARMA

In a world driven by innovation and technology, I envision Sunrising Cinevision Academy as a dynamic institution that seamlessly integrates modern techniques with traditional cinematic values. With a focus on fostering technical excellence and creative growth, I aspire to shape the next generation of storytellers and innovators.

DR. MANJU AGGARWAL

Her vision for Sunrising Cinevision Academy revolves around fostering an inclusive and nurturing environment where talents from diverse backgrounds can flourish. She believes in empowering individuals with knowledge, discipline, and a strong ethical foundation to leave a meaningful impact on the cinematic and creative industries.

DR. KRISHAN CHAHAL

My vision for Sunrising Cinevision Academy is to revolutionise the way individuals connect, inspire, and lead in the digital age. I aim to empower people from all walks of life—students, professionals, and business leaders—with the skills and confidence to craft their narratives, amplify their influence, and create meaningful impacts in their industries and communities.
